Part X - FIN 48 Footnote

CFK complies with FASB ASC 740- Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes.

FASB ASC 740 details how companies should recognize, measure, present and disclose uncertain tax positions that have been or are expected to be taken. As such, the financial statements would reflect expected future tax consequences of uncertain tax positions presuming the taxing authorities' full knowledge of the position and all relevant facts, if they existed. The management of CFK believes that there are no uncertain tax positions. CFK's tax years that remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service are fiscal years ended June 30, 2017 and forward.

Coats for Kids Cleveland has a volunteer board whose members donate significant time and energy to ensure the organization accomplishes its mission.

In addition, volunteers from churches, schools, communities and businesses sort, size and box the donated coats to prepare them for distribution.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First Accomplishment

COATS FOR KIDS provided new and like-new winter coats to children of school age in Northeast Ohio. New coats are purchased with funds raised through a variety of events along with donations from businesses, foundations and individuals. Donated coats are collected through an annual coat drop off campaign involving many area businesses and individuals.

New coats are distributed through a formal program involving public school districts with the highest percentages of children living below Federal poverty level within the Coats For Kids' 5 county service area. A combination of new and like-new coats were distributed to additional schools, churches and other community organizations. On average (for the past several years) Coats For Kids has distributed more than 22,000 coats each winter.

In 2017, Coats For Kids started a new program in which local companies who donate between $10,000-$15,000 can sponsor a full-school coat distribution event ($ donation varies based on school enrollment). Schools selected for this program have high percentages (between 90-100%) of children living below the Federal poverty level as every child in the school is provided
